October 7th 1924

My Dear Eunice
In the midst of the Confusion of getting the two boys off to two new schools and myself back to Canada, I received a cable advising me of your resignation.
I meant to cable my regrets but only thought of it at the wrong times.
I am always sorry when a link in life's chain is broken and wonder if I could have it like Tommy's

Brook; "run or never" I've had a bad cold and was in bed all the crossing. I have finished that with an abscess in the roof of my mouth, so have not been able to do anything but what was urgent business.
I'm off tomorrow to Lancaster and immediately on my return, to Munkshin, after my return from there about the fifteenth
I shall hope to see you.

Will you give my kind regards to Geordie, my love to Dorothy & Bob, and for yourself - I hope you are feeling much better than you were in the Spring.

Most Sincerely

Flora McCrea Ealton

'Tis Christmas,
The time of happy thoughts

May you have as many joys
As the Spring has flowers;
And as many gracious gifts
As the Year has hours.
